Prime Location in Alcudia

The location of SUN OF THE BAY 3 is unbeatable, right on the largest beach in Mallorca. The area is peaceful and surrounded by activities for adults and children, including restaurants, cafés, boutiques, playgrounds, and swimming pools. Banks, clinics, and medical services are within walking distance, and there are promenades ideal for enjoying the fresh air and taking leisurely walks.

Just a few minutes by car (approximately 5 km), you'll find small cozy beaches and historical sites like the Roman city of Pollentia, its Roman theater, and the medieval Alcudia with its impressive walls. Don't miss the chance to explore nature in the S'Albufera and S'Albufereta natural parks.

Activities and Attractions in Port d'Alcudia

Port d'Alcudia is a picturesque fishing port that has become a popular destination for beach lovers. Its waterfront has received awards for architectural design and is the perfect place to stroll among llaüts (traditional fishing boats) and the modern marina of Alcudiamar. Here you'll find:

- The best seafood restaurants
- Ice cream parlors
- Clothing stores
- Miles of fine sand and crystal-clear waters

Alcudia beach stretches for 10 km, offering a wide range of services, including bars, boat rentals, sailing courses, and a water park. Additionally, there are nearly twenty nearby beaches that vary in features, from sandy to rocky areas.

Explore Nature and Historical Heritage

From Coll Baix, nature lovers can embark on exciting hikes up to Sa Talaia, an ancient watchtower that offers stunning views of the surrounding bays. The areas of S'Albufereta and S'Albufera are essential for nature enthusiasts, hosting important wetland ecosystems.

The old town of Alcudia, with its blend of Arab and Roman influences, is an ideal place to get lost. From Sa Plaza, where local life comes alive, to streets filled with history, monuments like the Xara and Sant Sebastià gates, the Sant Jaume church, and the Roman theater, there are countless discoveries to be made.

Local Market and Other Attractions

Don't miss the Alcudia market held every Tuesday and Sunday morning, where farmers and artisans offer fresh local products, filling the town with color and life. Additionally, the Aucanada golf course, just 8 km away, is one of Mallorca's top golf courses, featuring 18 holes and spectacular views.
