Villa Can Albons is situated just outside Porto Colom, in a quiet street in the direction of S'Horta, 7 minutes walk from a supermarket and 10 minutes from the beautiful harbour with great restaurants and cafes overlooking the harbour. Porto Colom is a typical fishing port, where it is still possible to see the fishermen repairing their nets on the quays. This locality offers several fine sandy coves such as Cala Marçal which is 1.5 km away and those of S'Arenal and Es Babo at 5 minutes by car.

Only 8 km away is the well known tourist area of Cala D'Or, with a wide variety of shops, restaurants, pubs with live music and its beautiful marina. Nearby is the "Monasterio de San Salvador" with panoramic views over the island. The famous 'Cuevas del Drach' are only a 20 minute drive away. In the harbour there is a wide range of water sports and boat trips along the beautiful coastline. And golf lovers will find the Vall d'Or golf course only 4 km away. And the idyllic unspoilt beach of Cala Sanau with unforgettable atmosphere, bamboo chairs and beach bar is only a 10 minute drive away.

Portocolom is the port of Felanitx. It is a quiet fishing harbour situated in the southeast of the island of Mallorca, being one of the largest natural harbours of the island, shelter of many boats during the summer, looking for its calm waters. It is an excellent place for those who are looking for a place where they can find the typical seafaring charm, the charm of a fishermen's port. The lighthouse overlooking the bay and the sanctuary of Sant Salvador stand out. The walks around the port are a marvel that thousands of tourists discover every year and many of them are already captive residents of our port. The strong growth suffered by Portocolom, as a result of the massive arrival of tourists and the construction of hotels, has not managed to destroy the image of a fishing port with its picturesque corners.

The coastline of Felanitx has numerous virgin and paradisiacal coves of exceptional beauty. The most extensive is Cala Marçal, which has all kinds of services. S'Arenal, near the lighthouse, is smaller in size. The rest of its coves, which are difficult to access, can be reached by boats that go on excursions from the port.

It is situated about 12 km from Cala d'Or and 10.0 km from Cala Murada and has a population of about 4000 inhabitants, although this number increases during the summer months.

The village is divided into two parts, the old town around the port area and the other part is the tourist area which offers a good supermarket, shops and excellent local restaurants and bars.

Apart from being a fishing port, we also find the "Club Nautico de Porto Colom" here, where many pleasure boats will start trips along the coast.
